SOMETHING OF PIONEER WOMEN IN ALASKA

> Mrs. Strong, wife of Gov. J. F. A. tong of Alaska, talking recently to he Providence Journal, said of the vomen of Alaska;

"I do not know of any other women accomplishment. If they give an af-ternoon tea it is in as attractive surwill adorn the rooms, the whitest of apery covers the table, while the serice is perfect, not to mention the rereshments,"

The women of Alaska have suffrage the first bill passed by the new Legislature a year ago giving them that of the board of education and held imilar offices. The children are very patriotic, singing their Alaska songs with fervor, as if patriotism meant ore to them than to the majority of merican children.

It is 17 years since the future Gov ernor and his wife first went to Alaska and Mrs. Strong vividly recalls the diference between two trips made along ha Yukon. She says: "One we made when we first entered ie country. It is what is known as he interior trip of the Yukon-over rild mountain passes, behind dog cares, whipsawing our lumber for treams. It was a trip through the primitive, with obstacles on every and. And, yet, I can recall no cirmmstance which struck me as a big dventure at the time. One takes the days as they come, overcomes what bstacles appear, and keeps o.n

"The second trip we made when the overnor had been in office but a hort time. It was over the sam rail. But, oh, what a different trip! long the mountain passes in well dulpped trains and on the rivers in he palatic! Yukon steamships! was a centrast I shall never forget.

DICK DORWALDT IN TROUBLE AGAIN

A fight occurred on lower Front treet this morning about eight o'-clock over the possession of the old who can equal them in resourceful-lougshoremen's union hall, It was pretty lively affair for a time in which ness. And they are filled with an en-ness. And they are filled with an en-gung and other weapons flourished. As ergy which makes nothing too hard of a rocult Dick Dorwaldt and his ally Harry Howard were led away to the city jail with badly bruised heads, with the same appointments as the East affords. Flowers from Seattle nessed the affair, while Albert Martin, of the property. The difficulty arose when Martin who had been dispossessed, came to the place this morning with a rifle on his arm. Howard trained a revolver on him in a threatening manner. Marature a year ago giving them that right and women have been members on the head and then seizing a beer bottle struck Dorwaldt laying him out temporarily. They were then both placed under arrest and led to the city

Dorwaldt has been arrested me than once for being connected with gun flourishing escapades and has en twice tried on insanity charges within the past two years.

The building over which the trou le arose is built on leased ground in the Callaham Dorwaldt tract. building was purchased by Martin va'dt leased the property to the union and has since, so it is said, disposed of h's equity in the-property but has evertheless set up a claim for it. Chief of Police William McBride this afternoon swore to a complaint alleging that Dick Dorwaldt is insane. He will probably be given a hearing drams, "The Living Corpse," a four-reel feature of the Warner Feature company. This is given instead of the picture advertised for last night and tonight, "In the Power of a Hypnotist," the latter picture having gone astray in transit. A large crowd witnessed the performance last night and all have de-clared it highly satisfactory. "The Living Corpse" is a four-reel production and is one of the most fa-mous stories written by Count Leo olstol, the great Russian writer. One of the large daily papers in San Fran-cisco, speaking of this play, says: "You can't afford to miss this wo derful feature production; it is adapted from a world's classic, and you owe it to yourself to become familiar s a genuine dramatic treat."
